

The BNPA 37th Annual Conference
"How do our situations and environment shape us"
 Day 1 – Thursday 14 March 2024

Wolfson Lecture Theatre, Royal College of Physicians, 11 St Andrews Pl, London NW1 4LE

08:30 – Registration
08:55 – Welcome – Boyd Ghosh, BNPA President
New Perspectives on Environmental Influences on Neuropsychiatry
Chairs: Vaughan Bell & Tim Nicholson
09:00	pre-term birth as a risk factor for neuropsychiatric problems and how it interacts with social and environmental factors	Lucy Vanes
09:30	SUDEP: Past, present and future	Rohit Shankar
10:00	Environmental factors and social determinants of health in multiple sclerosis	Ruth Dobson
10:30 – Refreshments
11:00	JNNP Lecture Rethinking Neuropsychiatry: From Scientific Models to Clinical Narratives in the Latin American Landscape.	Jesus Ramirez Bermudez
11:50	Mega-analysis of structural magnetic resonance imaging in 493 patients with functional neurological disorder	Matt Butler
12:05	Association between paediatric mild traumatic brain injury, subsequent psychiatric problems and mental health service use: a longitudinal cohort study	Grace Revill
12:20	Investigating the Impact of Digital Memory Augmentation on Accelerated Long-Term Forgetting of Autobiographical Memory and Psychological Well-Being in Patients with Transient Epileptic Amnesia	Katrina Thornber
Lunch 12:35
Poster Datablitz: 13:00 – Dorchester Library.
Chairs: Laurence Knowles & Jeremy Isaacs
Is psychosis a neurological or psychiatric diagnosis
Chairs: Laura McWhirter & Boyd Ghosh
14:05	Phenomenological Psychopathology in Clinical Neuropsychiatry: Insights into Psychosis	Jesus Ramirez Bermudez
14:35	Psychosis Case 1	Abhi Sharma
14:55	Psychosis Case 2	Janet Butler
15:15 - Refreshments
15:45	BNPA Medal Lecture Autoimmune psychosis and the challenge for psychiatry	Belinda Lennox
16:25	Psychiatric manifestations of autoimmune encephalitis	Adam Handel
16:55	Discussion from audience and panel
17:30 - Close
17:30 - 21:00 – BNPA Evening Party ALL WELCOME

The BNPA 37th Annual Conference
"How do our situations and environment shape us"
 Day 2 – Friday 15 March 2024

Wolfson Lecture Theatre, Royal College of Physicians, 11 St Andrews Pl, London NW1 4LE

08:30 – Registration
How do our perceptions of disease shape our interactions with Artificial Intelligence Chairs: Wendy Phillips & Jeremy Isaacs
09:00	Evolution of diagnoses in ICD-11: the sample case of trauma- and stress-associated disorders	Andreas Maercker
09:30	Categorisation of disease using Artificial Intelligence	Joseph Kambeitz
10:30 – Refreshments
11:00	Using Artificial Intelligence in Dementia	Zoe Kourtzi
11:35	The role of Artificial Intelligence in the treatment of pain	Ben Seymour
12:10	A automated assessment of Cognition based on Language?	Dan Blackburn
12:45 – Lunch
12:50 - BNPA AGM – Dorchester Library
Poster Datablitz: 13:30 – Dorchester Library
Chairs: Richard Cole & Laura McWhirter
How does the information around us alter neuropsychiatric presentations Chairs: Norman Poole & Laurence Knowles
14:30	The problem with mental health awareness	Lucy Foulkes
15:00	Rapid onset functional tic like behaviours	Tamara Pringsheim
15:30	ANPA/BNPA Lecture Neuropsychiatry without reductionism : application of a biopsychosocial model	Derek Bolton
16:20 – Close and summing up – Boyd Ghosh, President
16:30 - END		